CPL Hoe Jun Leong served his Full-Time National Service from 6 January 2018 to 5 January 2020 as a developer in the Application Development Section of the Army Digitalisation Office. Being technically proficient and savvy, he was able to learn the programming software and languages that were required for the job quickly. CPL Hoe is a conscientious and self-motivated individual who is able to effectively multi-task. He managed his work schedule well to meet deadlines and delivered work of high standards. His team developed a Civil Resource Requisition app, which was featured at the Innovation Symposium 2019. CPL Hoe is both an independent worker as well as a team player. In addition to fulfilling his primary role and duties, he is also very approachable and very willing to share his knowledge. He often provided technical assistance to his peers whenever they needed help. CPL Hoe will no doubt be an invaluable asset to any organisation he serves in the future.

Outstanding	Given to servicemen who go over-and-above their call of duty in their day-to-day work performance, or display exemplary attitude, commitment and impressive personal qualities in their conduct.
Very Good	Given to servicemen who have shown a high level of proficiency in terms of performance, and positive attitude and bearing in terms of conduct.
Good	Reflects above average performance and conduct.
Satisfactory	Reflects the minimum standard of performance that is expected of a serviceman holding an appointment, or the minimum standard of conduct.
